

Illuminations: Celebrating Beacon's 25 Years

Dear Beacon community,

Thank you so much for being part of Illuminations, our art exhibit for a cause, which received such overwhelming support from everyone. Your presence at our event at Silverlens Gallery Den yesterday, surrounded by the incredible artworks from students, faculty, parents, and family donors, made it truly special. Illuminations shone as a beautiful celebration of the Beacon kind of creativity, community, and 25 years of nurturing young minds.

Because of you, our students felt seen, encouraged, and deeply valued. There is nothing more powerful for a young artist than knowing their work is appreciated with warm applause and genuine support. The smiles on their faces as they saw their artworks on Silverlens' walls, the pride and joy with which they shared their process with friends — these were priceless.

For those in our community who were not able to attend or make a purchase during the exhibit, we're happy to share that selected artworks are still available and will be displayed again in Beacon. We have extended the Illuminations online sale until the end of April to give everyone more time to browse the collection and bring home something meaningful while continuing to uplift our student artists.

We also encourage you to share our official catalog and JotForm link with other friends and family who may wish to participate, even beyond the Beacon circle. Illuminations is our opportunity to share our school with others, what makes it special, and how it has made a lasting impact on our children's lives. Every artwork purchased and every donation given helps us invest in the next generations of learners — providing programs, resources, and experiences that shape confident, creative, and compassionate young people who strive to become change agents.

Thank you once again for your generosity and for believing in the power of art to build community. Here's to 25 years of Beacon, and to many more!

With gratitude,

Beacon School Fundraising Committee
